

I am asking that you not change the law in Indiana to make it less restrictive for telemarketing calls. I feel that the calls are an invasion of my privacy. I have health considerations and answering my telephone and having a solicitor on the the line is an aggravation for me. If anything I would like the national changes to be even stricter